⚠WARNING⚠

DO NOT USE WITH FRONT OR REAR PROJECTION TV

Do not use a front or rear projection television with your Nintendo Entertainment System® ("NES") and NES games. Your projection television screen may be permanently damaged if video games with stationary scenes or patterns are played on your projection television. Similar damage may occur if you place a video game on hold or pause. If you use your projection television with NES games, Nintendo will not be liable for any damage. This situation is not caused by a defect in the NES or NES games; other fixed or repetitive images may cause similar damage to a projection television. Please contact your TV manufacturer for further information.

READ BEFORE USING YOUR NES

A very small portion of the population may experience epileptic seizures when viewing certain kinds of flashing lights or patterns that are commonly present in our daily environment. These persons may experience seizures while watching some kinds of television pictures or playing certain video games. Players who have not had any previous seizures may nonetheless have an undetected epileptic condition. We suggest that you consult your physician if you have an epileptic condition or if you experience any of the following symptoms while playing video games: altered vision, muscle twitching, other involuntary movements, loss of awareness of your surroundings, mental confusion, and/or convulsions.

Panzers Journal Entry
July 1 / 2022

I can't even begin to explain what an incredible year it's been! Last year I rallied the men for what could be called nothing less then a LEGENDARY achievement. Even though I had to do most of the work myself, the completed monument truly gave the people the chance to bask in the glory of my achievements.

Once it was completed the world council saw it as a sign that it was time to reach out for help. they begged and pleaded with me to re-establish my old raid team "the Zergadins", and return to fighting the injustices of the world. They offered me unlimited funding to rebuild my old headquarters and re-establish my old warp portal system. To sweeten the deal, they even offered to return my old throne of leadership (they had put it in storage awaiting my return.) Its now the highlight of my throne room.

I, of course, HAD to accept, as they were obviously lost without me. Blarghe, as was to be expected, was regrettably assigned to me as my second. (I suppose they needed someone to babysit him.) Most of my old raid team was reassembled and finally we are setting out on our adventures once again. I just hope that the world realizes how lucky they are that I agreed.

Up + B Buton
If applicable use Characters alternative ability.

Down + B Button
If applicable Use Characters alternatve ability.

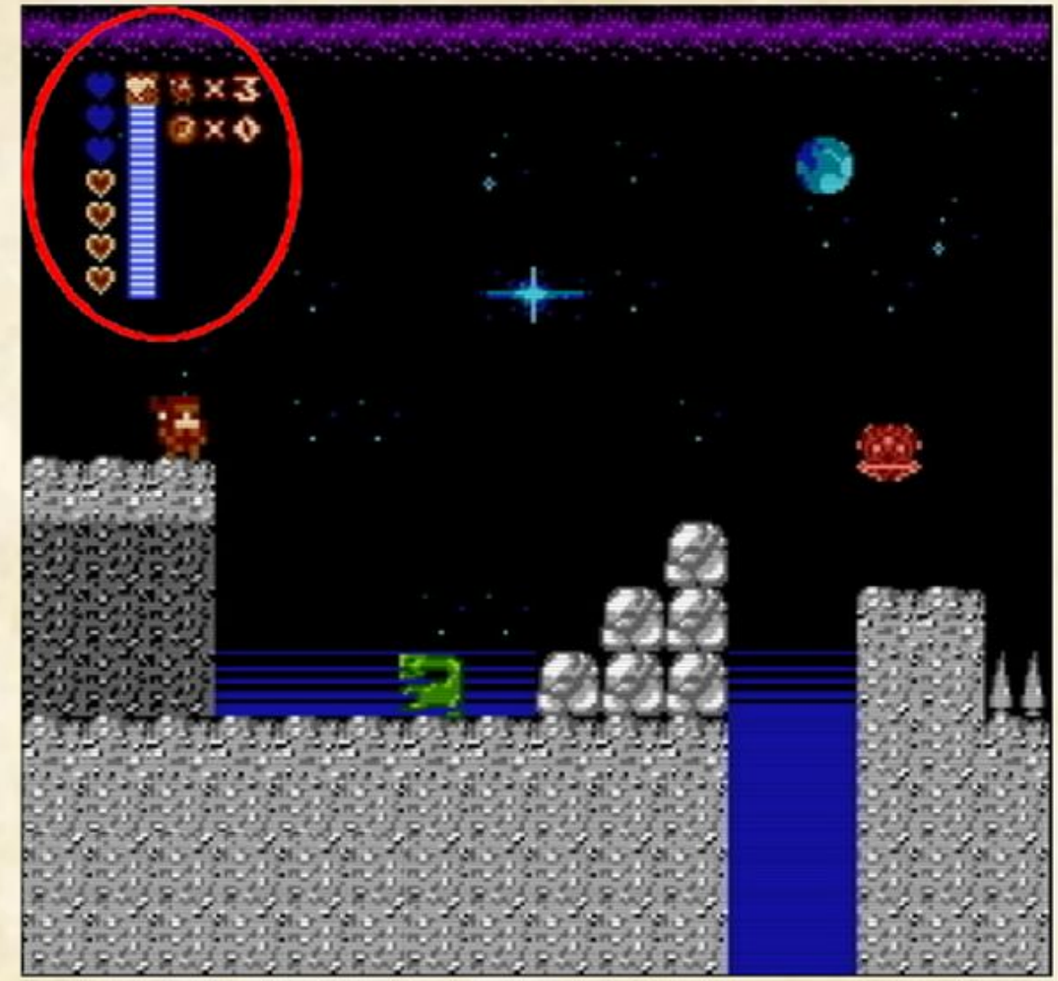
THE HUD

Heart containers - These represent the Players health. Each hit the player takes will reduce the amount of hearts by 1. When he reaches 0 the player dies. Blue heart containers cannot be filled until you get them from Pugna.

Mana - Some magical abilities will need mana in order to activate. Each time an ability needing mana is used, the mana bar will be reduced. The abilities cannot be used when there is no mana available.

Lives - When the player loses all of their lives the game is over!

Pugnas coins - find 6 coins and bring them over to Pugna in the Zergadins HQ. He will reward you with an extra heart container!



Power Ups

Mana Potion
Mana is used whenever the player uses their magical abilities. Grab these potions to replenish some mana!

Victory Orb
After beating a boss collect the orb to fully restore the teams health and warp back to the HQ.

Pugna Coins
Collect 6 of these and give them to Pugna to turn a blue heart container into a regular heart container.

General Panzer

Panzer is known as an extremely well-decorated and legendary military General (despite having never fought in a major battle and constantly failing at being in command of an army). All the other Zergadins raid members believe that a lot of Panzer's bravado is manufactured, and despite his famous reputation, his personality shows him to be arrogant, selfish, incompetent, mean-spirited, and extremely vain. Panzer's personality embodies someone who tends to make incredibly ill-conceived decisions, unfortunately his commands are also obeyed without question, usually with very disastrous results.

Sword Attack (B button)
Panzers Trademark sword thrust. Great for buttering bread... but not much else.

Sword Down Thrust (Down Control pad)
Once Hellwolf teaches Panzer this attack he can use it to crush his enemies!

Flash Heal (Up Control pad & B)
A quick healing ability that uses 2 mana and heals 1 heart container. Be careful not to use all your mana!

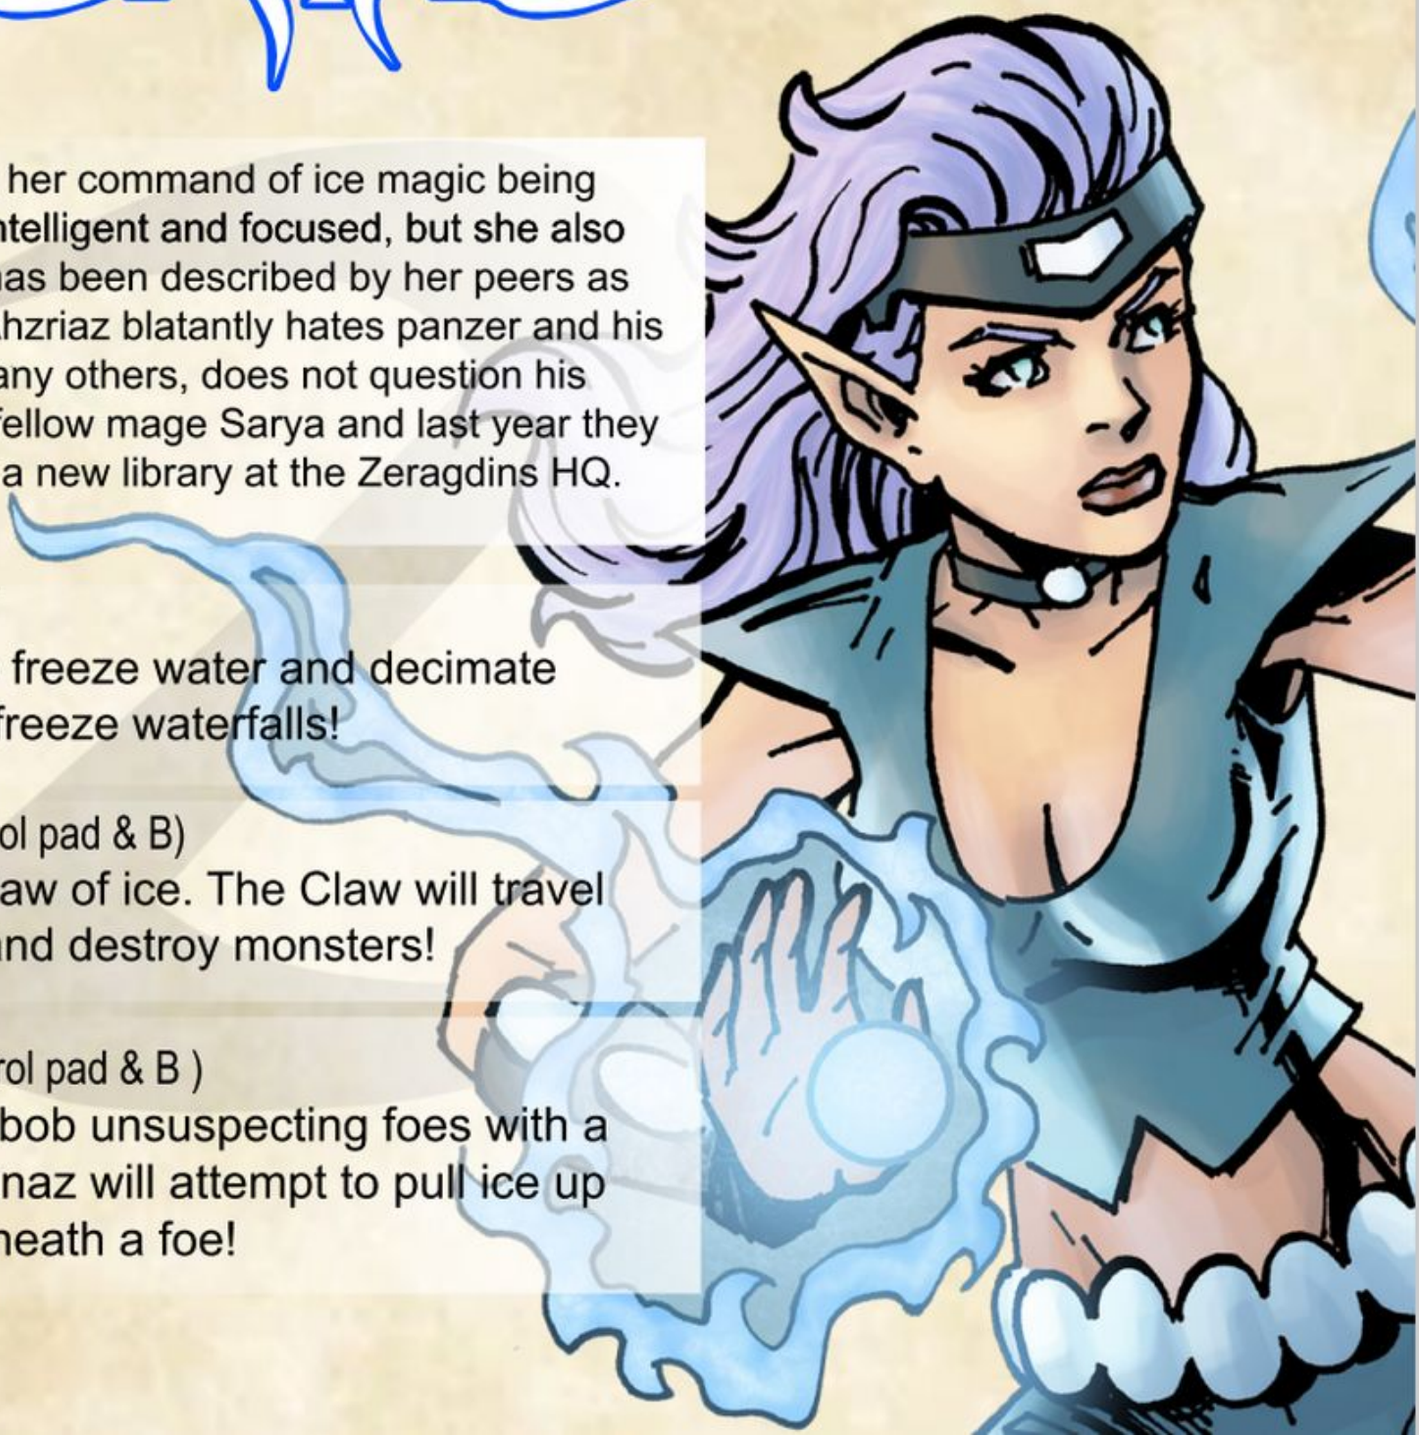
AHZRIAZ

An extremely intelligent mage, with her command of ice magic being totally unmatched. Ahzriaz is highly intelligent and focused, but she also tends to be extremely ruthless. She has been described by her peers as cold, calculating and very powerful. Ahzriaz blatantly hates panzer and his ridiculous commands but she, like many others, does not question his orders. She is long-time friends with fellow mage Sarya and last year they left the Northern mage tower to build a new library at the Zeragdins HQ.

Ice Bolt (B button)
Fires a bolt of ice to freeze water and decimate enemies. Can also freeze waterfalls!

Ice claw (Down Control pad & B)
Creates a Deadly claw of ice. The Claw will travel across the ground and destroy monsters!

Ice Spike (Up Control pad & B)
Attempt to shish kabob unsuspecting foes with a giant ice spike! Azrinaz will attempt to pull ice up from directly underneath a foe!



Vespeto

The myth, the legend, the lunatic troll nut job, Vespeto is completely unhinged. He would backstab you for a quarter and then call you while you were in the hospital to ask if you wanted to meet for drinks later. Vespeto speaks with a Caribbean Jamaican accent (many believe it is faked) and is well known for his extremely erratic behavior and his disposition toward creating havoc in everything he is involved in. Panzer was able to get him to agree to rejoin the Zergadins last year by agreeing to clone Vespeto so he could have “a few spares”.

Toss Bomb (B button)
Use one of Vespeto’s over packed explosive bombs to break walls... or monsters!

Stealth (Down Control pad + B button)
Use stealth for a short period to go invisible so monsters can’t see or hurt the player! Uses 2 mana.

Gank that Fool! (B while in stealth)
Attack an enemy while in stealth with Vespeto’s trusty pocketknife! Attacking Will remove stealth.

KANKARO

Many Years ago, Kankaro was recruited as one of the first official members of the Zergadins. He has since been an extremely loyal and enthusiastic team player, always ready to jump into an assignment with everything he's got regardless of the danger. He idolizes General Panzer, worshipping the ground that he walks on, and despite Panzer's clear disregard for Kankaro's safety, Kankaro would take a bullet to protect him. His young appearance is deceptive, as Kankaro is actually older then most of his fellow Zeragdins.

Archery (B button)
Fire an arrow from Kankaro's Bow! Good for murdering monsters and boosts the Player's self esteem!

Feign Death (Down Control pad & B)
Lets' the player pretend to be dead so monsters will ignore the player. You cannot take damage or perform any actions while in Feign Death. Uses 2 mana.

Reload Quiver (Up Control pad & B)
Kankaro can hold up to 3 arrows in his quiver. Reload to avoid running out!

The Mission Board

"Once the Headquarters finished construction, we started getting requests for raid deployment all over the world! However (as usual), it was ridiculously painful trying to explain mission Briefings to Panzer, so with Saryas help, I set up an easy way for Panzer to pick our next assignments: all he had to do is go into the warp portal room and use the computer to choose a picture of the quest he wants to accept. Then based on that, we would open the portal to get to that mission ." - Blarghe

The Bandit Forest Raid

"The forest bandits have always been a local nuisance. But, after Grokk was removed as their leader last year, those brain-dead idiots went totally out of control. I was getting sick of hearing about those bandits raiding villages... so I decided (since no one else was capable of handing it) I would take a team to put a stop to them. It may be a waste of my time, but what can you do? Sometimes you have to hold everyone's hands." - General Panzer

Rivendars ice Fortress

"Now, who do we know that would be stupid enough to build a castle in the frozen wastelands? I mean talk about the worst location you could possibly pick. Its cold, its boring, it's ugly, and worst of all its almost always dark outside. It makes sense that only Rivenar, Prince of failures, would think that's a good idea. I can't wait to pay this loser a visit." - General Panzer

Hareynas' Farmville

"Its impressive to me that Hareynas can be so eclectic. Despite him being a long-term member of the Zergadins, his real passion lies with farming. Hareynas' farm is run by an incredible marvel of modern and traditional farming techniques, and I would say that it's one of my favorite places in the world to visit. Especially with all the pigs everywhere. Not quite sure how they get on top of the barns ..." - Blarghe

Doverkins Desert Den

"This place is too HOT! I wish I could understand why anyone would want to come here. Its ridiculous! Why would anyone put up with all the sand and the HEAT? Not even a mojito stand for miles! Did I mention how hot this place is? If we end up getting forced to travel this way, Blarghe is going to have to hold my umbrella above me properly; I CANNOT get sunburnt during swimsuit season." - General Panzer

Mappys Crazy Moon Base

"Mappy has a base on the MOON? That's fantastic! I can't wait to get up there. The view will be incredible, and I bet the food will all be delicious! Are there moon cows? I wonder what space steak tastes like... Oh! I bet that there will be a giant moon rock that I can chisel my likeness into! Then every night everyone on the planet can bask in my glory!" - General Panzer

Seraphems Graveyard

"This place gives me the chills. You'd think that a place that you lay the dead to rest would be a lot more ... I don't know... Inviting? But no, it's so creepy that I half expect to see zombies popping out of the ground. Wait, what? There are literally zombies there? Okay... well I'm sure Seraphem has a good reason to be there. I'm also sure its so far beyond our comprehension that we really should not even try to think about it." - Blarghe

Vespetos Clone Sewers

*"This has got to be one of the worst mistakes of my life. Panzer ordered me to clone Vespeto last year so he could convince Vespeto to join the team and work on the statue.* I've never cloned anything before*! So, when the research began ... there were many, many failed attempts. What was I supposed to do with the failed clones?! Flushing them down the toilet seemed to make the most sense at the time...."* - Blarghe

The Volcano

"I don't trust Volcanos.. and I never will."
- General Panzer

The Main Bosses

"So.. these are the ridiculous fools that think they can get away with it?! No one messes with my stuff without answering to me! I will personally pay each one of these good-for-nothings a visit and teach them the folly of their pathetically delinquent ways! Wait... I think I might actually know some of these boneheads..." - General Panzer

Seraphem - The God Paladin

"Seraphem has always a bit of an enigma to me. I wouldn't be exaggerating when I say he is literally the most powerful being on the entire planet*. He can fly, shoot laser beams out of his eyes, heal from any injury, and has some kind of weird telekinetic power ... the guy is basically invincible! But, for whatever reason he had absolutely no issue serving under Panzers command. Seraphem's loyalty was off the charts... even used to call Panzer, "boss" all the time..."* - Blarghe

Hareynas - The farmer

"So let me get this straight. I take a small vacation and Hareynas has the audacity to take over MY raid team?! It took me years to get everyone into shape and I bet he's turned them into a bunch of.. I don't know... Hippies! He needs to be put in his place and sent back to that farm he loves so much. Bet he doesn't even have chickens..."
- General Panzer

Vespeto - The clone

"So... I may have made a really big mistake. Last year Panzer ordered me to create clones of Vespeto. Have you ever tried researching the cloning process?! Its not like baking a cake! I did manage to figure it out, but I must have made dozens of failed clones. What did I do with them? Flushed them down the toilet.... Now we have Vespetos infesting the sewers..." - Blarghe

Rivendar - The Death Knight

“Rivendar has been Panzers Rival as far back as I can remember. I think Rivendar would literally find hobbies that Panzer seemed interested in just to show that he was better at them than Panzer. Rivendar constantly teased Panzer and it that would drive him absolutely crazy. I hate to admit it but watching Panzer react was something that I looked forward to everyday. ” - Blarghe

Doverkin - The Orc Shaman

“I always liked Doverkin. He was very easy to get along with and seemed to have a good head on his shoulders. You would assume that he would be just as bloodthristy as his Brother, Hellwolf, but that isn’t the case at all. Unfortunately he simply could not work under General Panzer and decided to move on. He always enjoyed warmer climates so its no surprise that he would relocate to the desert.” - Blarghe

Mappy - The Diabolical Warlock

"I still can't believe that I used to work with Mappy AND Vespeto at the same time. This guy is certifiably crazy. Apparently he wound up going on some kind of crazy killing spree about a decade ago and has been on the run ever since. We still have no idea why he did it. Last I heard he was hiding on the moon because no one has jurisdiction up there for his arrest..." - Blarghe

Non Player Characters

Non Player Characters, or NPCs for short, are characters that are not controlled by the player. In the World of Panzer they are characters that are in the game to serve not as enemies but allies!

Instead of attacking you, they will chat with you about the happenings in the world. Be sure to be on the lookout for everyone! They may give you some useful information ... or, more likely, they could just babble about nonsense.
